

A. W. AUNER, SONG PUBLISHER & PRINTER,
Tenth and Race Sts., Philadelphia, Pa.

---

MY DAUGHTER JULIA.

---

I have a daughter named Julia,
She's seventeen,
And I am told by all the neighbors,
That she is like a queen.
At all the balls and parties,
My Julia is all the rage,
In the ballet she's a star,
When my daughter leaps out on the stage.

CHORUS.

Dancing 'round on her toes,
To the music around she goes;
Oh, waltzing around with Julia,
My Julia she is all the rage,
In the ballet she's a star,
When my daughter leaps out on the stage.

When the music is playing,
How the people all shout;
On the stage they throw bouquets,
When my daughter does come out;
She dresses like a fairy,
At it she's engaged;
She looks like me in the tra la, la lu,
When my daughter leaps out on the stage.
Dancing round on, &c.

---

A. W. AUNER'S
CARD AND JOB PRINTING ROOMS,
Tenth and Race Sts., Philadelphia, Pa.